

Jan Shepherd, MD

Dr. Jan Shepherd received her M.D. from Northwestern University Medical School in 1975. After completing a residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Cincinnati Medical Center, she joined the clinical faculty of the university & managed a very busy private practice in Cincinnati for 6 yrs.

With interest in reproductive endocrinology piqued by practice experience, she proceeded to a Fellowship in Reproductive Endocrinology at the University of South Alabama, then utilized her new-found experience at the pioneering Penny Wise Budoff Women's Medical Center in New York & as Clinical Assistant Professor at SUNY Stony Brook. Dr. Shepherd fulfilled a lifelong dream & moved to Colorado in 1988. There she practiced gynecology part-time and provided back-up and nurse practitioner training for Planned Parenthood of the Rocky Mountains .

In 2003 she was recruited by the new medical school at Florida State University to found the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology. She spent four years establishing the department, with her efforts culminating in a major teaching award from FSU Medical School in 2007.

Dr. Shepherd has recently returned to Colorado, where she plans to pursue her passions by continuing her involvement at Planned Parenthood, & writing, speaking, and teaching about women's health issues on both the regional & national levels.
